

Japanese Journal of Religious Studies

Volume 6

1979

International Institute for the Study of Religions

1-15-1 Wada, Suginami-ku, Tokyo 166, Japan

6

V.6-7
1979-80

CONTENTS

Articles

The Identity Model of Religion	Hans MOL	11
Professionalization and Secularization in the Belgian Catholic Pillar	Karel DOBBELAERE	39
Reflections on the Secularization Thesis in the Sociology of Religion in Japan	Jan SWYNGEDOUW	65
The Problem of Secularization	TAMARU Noriyoshi	89
The Structural Conditions of Religious Consciousness in Modern Societies	Thomas LUCKMANN	121
The Vitalistic Conception of Salvation in Japanese New Religions	TSUSHIMA Michihito, NISHIYAMA Shigeru, SHIMAZONO Susumu, and SHIRAMIZU Hiroko	139
A Festival with Anonymous Kami	INOUE Nobutaka, KŌMOTO Mitsugu, NAKAMAKI Hirochika, SHIOYA Masanori, UNO Masato, and YAMAZAKI Yoshie	163
The New Religions	Bryan R. WILSON	193

After Prophecy Fails	SANADA Takaaki	217
The Institutionalization of a New Religious Movement	MORIOKA Kiyomi	239
The Cultural Politics of Established Churches	David A. MARTIN	287
Contemporary Social Change and Shinto Tradition	UEDA Kenji	303
Conflict within the Development of Buddhism	MATSUNAMI Yoshihiro	329
Secularization Theory and Japanese Christianity: The Case of the Nihon Kirisuto Kyōdan	David REID	347
The Living Kami Idea in the New Religions of Japan	SHIMAZONO Susumu	389
Organizational Mediums: A Case Study of Shinnyo-en	SHIRAMIZU Hiroko	413
Sex-Role Norms and Values in Reiyūkai	Helen HARDACRE	445
Frame, Flow and Reflection: Ritual and Drama as Public Liminality	Victor TURNER	465
Between Unity and Separation: Religion and Politics in Japan, 1965-1977	YANAGAWA Keiichi and David REID	500

The Emperor of Japan: A Historical Study in Religious Symbolism

MORI Kōichi

522

Reviews

BROWN and ISHIDA, The future and the past

David REID

566

KOKUBO, Den shingon'in mandara

Ronald SULESKI

569